

Márk Pánczél

Head of the Antitrust Section of the Hungarian Competition Authority, the G VH

Márk Pánczél is Head of Unit at the Hungarian Competition Authority. He has been working for the Antitrust Unit of the Authority since 2012.

He represents the Authority at various international fora, including the European Competition Network and OECD Competition Committee, and contributes to seminars and conferences related to competition law.

He graduated Law at ELTE University, Budapest and holds an LL.M. in international business law (Suffolk University, Boston).